Invite Masaoka to Attend Japanese Peace Parley

WASHINGTON — The State Department last week invited Mike Masaoka, national legislative director of the JACL-ADC to attend the Japanese peace treaty conference in San Francisco beginning Sept. 4.

Masaoka was invited as an unofficial observer to attend all sessions of the Conference at which the Japanese peace treaty is to be signed.

Because of his leadership among persons of Japanese ancestry in the United States, several congressmen suggested that the State Department invite Masaoka to witness the signing of the treaty.

In accepting the invitation, Masaoka said that as an American citizen he is delighted that this country is taking the lead in welcoming Japan back into the family of nations with a just and non-punitive peace treaty and that as an American of Japanese ancestry he is hopeful that this Conference will be the beginning of a new and more friendly era of international relations between Japan and the United States.

For Bookworms

Just before summer, I made out a long and somewhat ambitious list of impressive sounding books to be read in the cool of the evenings. But the evenings were kind of hot and there seemed to be more exciting things to do that made for less work than reading books on the list which included stuff by Aldous Huxley, Virginian Woolf, Thomas Mann, Marcel Proust, and others. They didn't write books to be read for pure animal enjoyment.

Summertime is more of a time to be spent reading comic books in the shade of the old apple tree. Much easier to do.

However, I did manage to prod myself into reading several outstanding novels like D. H. Lawrence's Sons and Lovers, Feodor Dostoyevsky's Crime and Punishment, and James Joyce's The Portrait of The Artist as a Young Man. They are major works in literature and represent some really fabulous writing talent.

I also paused slightly for entertainment—the pure animal type—with stuff like James Mitchener's Return to Paradise, Voltaire's Candide, and James Jones' From Here to Eternity which I discussed some time ago.

Now Dostoyevsky, Lawrence, and Joyce certainly aren't what the average Nisei would read. But it would be a worthwhile effort on their part to wade through the books. I would heartily recommend them.

All three books, I think, are worth re-reading because of their high literary content as well as for the mental stimulation which they provoke. And if someone were to jokingly ask me for a list of Ten Greatest Books, I would, without any hesitation, include Crime and Punishment and Sons and Lovers in my personal selections.

You meet some realy amazing characters. Memorable because you are shown in detail the darkness of spirit into which a man can fall: the struggle between a man and his conscience, religion, family or politics. Sounds morbid, I know, but this is the kind of stuff that is stimulating reading.

Personal Choice

Lawrence's Sons and Lovers gave me a terrific personal impact, not only for its passages of pure lyrical beauty but also for the violent emotions involved—father vs. son hate and mother vs. son love—with each

Still living with their parents are two other sons, Donald, 20, and Herbert, 23.

WASHINGTON — A television network that eventually will have about 22 outlets may begin operation in Japan within a year, according to Senator Mundt, Republican from South Dakota.

He said the entire cost, estimated at $4,670,000, will be borne by Japanese financiers.

Programs will be relayed along mountaintops and no coaxial cables will be necessary.

BOOK ON TRIAL

NISEI BECOMES PRESIDENT OF B. C. KIWANIS CLUB, FIRST TIME IN CANADA

CRESTON, B. C. — A successful Nisei businessman of Creston Valley is the new head of the Creston Kiwanis Club. Tak Toyota, 32, owner of Creston Electric, recently became the president of the local branch of the internationally established businessmen's organization noted for its charitable and community work.

Five years ago Tak Toyota and his wife, Betty, moved to Creston from Slocan when the latter was closing up as an evacuation centre, to set up a small radio repair and electrical appliance shop with himself as proprietor and staff. Today, he has parlayed his small beginning by moving to a larger location and establishing his business as the largest appliance store in Creston Valley.

Creston Electric employs a staff of seven, all Caucasians, and is doing an annual business of $120,000 in sales and service. The store deals in all leading brands in home appliances, carries oil heating equipment and has the district franchise for bottled propane gas.

The Toyota family, which has increased to four, with the addition of two sons since coming to Creston, is the only family of Japanese ancestry in the valley which has a total population of around 6,000.

Mr. Toyota takes an active interest in the community, especially in youth organizations and in projects to boost Creston. In Creston's Diamond Jubilee Festival, held in the spring, Creston Electric entered a float and won first prize in the commercial section. The firm also drew favorable comment for its eye-catching commercial display at the civic centre.

The new president is the first person of Japanese ancestry to head a Kiwanis Club in Canada. The local Kiwanis group consisting of 38 members is active in community affairs and recently gave the town $9,000 swimming pool.

Tak Toyota's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Toyota, are residents of St. Catherines. Frank Toyota, who has made himself a name in Ontario hockey circles, is a brother. Prior to the evacuation, Tak Toyota was a resident of Duncan, Vancouver Island.

Heat Wave Hits Slocan, Stop Mill Operations

SLOCAN CITY, B. C. — A searing heat wave licked at the former evacuation centre of Slocan, raising the thermometer to uncomfortable heights as B. C. experienced 58 days without rain.

Logging and sawmill operations were suspended for several days until rain finally fell, the first precipitation since July 9. The district suffered a stretch of over 90-degree temperature for 11 days without relief.

A minor accident was suffered when Mrs. Taniguchi sustained a broken thigh bone when she slipped from bed. She is now convalescing at the Trail Hospital. Tomio Hayashida was reported as being in Nakusp Hospital.

Signs Bill to Speed Up U.S. Evacuee Claims Payment

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Pres. Truman signed the evacuation claims compromise settlement bill on Aug. 17.

Enactment of the bill into law gave rise to the hope that quicker settlement could be made on thousands of claims filed by Japanese Americans for losses in property suffered as a result of their mass expulsion from the West Coast in 1942.

The law, which was drafted by the Justice Department and sponsored by the JACL-ADC, authorizes the Attorney General to offer settlements on smaller claims up to three-fourths of the amount on such items as are considered compensable, or $2500, whichever is less.

The bill was drafted by Justice Department officials in answer to charges that settlement of claims under present claims program was proceeding at snail's pace.

Plan Heavy Coverage Of Treaty Proceedings

TOKYO — Japanese newspapers are planning their biggest journalistic invasion of the North American continent for the signing of the peace treaty in San Francisco.

The press contingent plans to arrive in San Francisco Sept. 1, just before the conference opens.

Every major newspaper and radio company plans to send from four to five newsmen and photographers. Only Japan's lack of dollars will prevent the invasion from reaching astronomical proportions.

Newspaper circles believe the dollar-short Japanese government will limit the delegation to 50 or even less.

The press corps will be directed by top Japanese newspaper executives.

Competition among Japanese reporters will be keen as some 80 million Japanese will be waiting for the biggest newspaper story of Japan in years.

THOSE SOCIAL NOTES

As a newspaper, we note with more than casual interest the passing of engagement and wedding pictures from the social pages of the Vancouver Province. In an abrupt departure from customary newspaper practice, it has decided to publish them no longer. Principal reason is that like all dailies, the women's editor is constantly harassed by a back-log flood of pictures for which there is simply no space.

No, we have no intention of cutting out pictures or curtailing our social notes. We are only too well aware of the avid interest with which the majority of our readers scan the engagement, marriage and birth notices for familiar names. To those who prefer to keep constant tab on the Japanese Canadian society, these items are as important as the baseball box-scores to a Yankee fan or tomorrow's weather report to the ever-cautious. To drop them would be virtually suicidal.

Especially with the evacuation and the relocation that followed, social notes have taken on a new meaning. They have become an important and sometimes the only source of keeping up with the news of friends living hundreds or even thousands of miles away. It is followed closely by those who are now living in Japan, and by the Canadian girls who have married Americans and are now residing in the United States, to them it is a reminder of Canada and the people they know there.

We would like to reiterate that the personal column will remain so ong as we have engagements, marriages and births among our readers. But we'd ike to add a reminder. Pease let us know about them so we can tell your friends.

Sister Movie Stars On Tour in U. S.

LOS ANGELES — Yumeji Tsukioka, said to possess the most beautiful legs among Japanese actresses, and her sister Chiaki, who is also a film player, arrived here from Hawaii recently, for a series of personall appearances.

Yumeji, the older of the two, is an established star rising to fame during the war after making her start in the Takarazuka. She is under contract to Shochiku Films and Columbia Records and has appeared in around 50 films.

Chiaki also came up through the Takarazuka and broke into films in 1946. Like her sister, she possesses a good singing voice, and is also an accomplished dancer.

LOS ANGELES — Takashi Kimura, Japanese writer who wrote about the 442nd, is now in Los Angeles doing research on the life of Pfc. Sadao Munemori, only Nisei Congressional Medal of Honor winner, in order to write Munemori's life story.

Racism of W. R. Hearst

The obituaries which were published this week for William Randolph Hearst, dead at the age of 88 in his Beverley Hills mansion, have failed to give even a passing mention to his role in the incitement of race hatred against persons of Japanese ancestry in the United States. In the story of Hearst, man and legend, the systematic attacks which his newspapers carried on to foment antagonisms against Japanese Americans may appear of minor interest. But to the Nisei and their immigrant parents who were stung by the editorial lash of the Hearst press, the Lord of San Simeon loomed a veritable ogre.

The practice in writing newspaper obituaries is to recall the good the newly dead have done and led the evil to interred with their bones. The encomiums which have been published since Aug. 14 have reflected this charitable nature in the nation's press.

It is of course less than fair to question the motives and morality of an ordinary man in an obituary. There are no rebuttal from the grave.

William Randolph Hearst, however, was no ordinary man. As lord and master of a fabulous publishing empire, he used his power to shape public opinion. He wielded the news columns of his newspapers, as well as the editorial pages, as a weapon. He cast a long shadow.

The persistent racist attacks in the Hearst newspapers against Japanese Americans undoubtedly influenced public attitudes toward members of the group in the early years of World War II. The Hearst press, in 1942, favored the mass evacuation of persons of Japanese ancestry and published scare editorials which circulated falsehoods about sabotage by Japanese Americans in Hawaii at the time of the attack on Pearl Harbor. Later, in November and December of 1943, when the great majority of Japanese Americans were living in war relocation camps, the Hearst newspapers launched a full dress attack on the evacuees, headlining scare stories of "bombs and guns" found at the Tule Lake segregation camp (no bombs or guns were ever found in the possession of any evacuee at the center) and hinting that evacuees in the Colorado River camp at Poston, Ariz., were illegally entering the State of California for possible sabotage. The purpose of this performance in yellow journalism was to prevent the release of evacuees from the war relocation centers for individual resettlement.

In May and June of 1943 the Hearst newspaper participated in the campaign instigated by J. Parnell Thomas, then a congressman, to destroy the War Relocation Authority. The Hearst papers gave full play to lies and distorted testimony, most of which was designed to impress upon the people of the United States the suspicion that Japanese Americans were possible saboteurs and would be safer within the confines of concentration camps.

It should be noted for the record that the Hearst attacks on the Nisei ceased after the war when the story of Nisei soldiers, particularly of the 442nd Combat Team, gained wide circulation. In recent years the Hearst papers generally have treated news material concerning the Nisei as a group or individual Nisei without editorial bias.

William Randolph Hearst was born on April 29, 1963. He was an only child, and it is reported that his parents were indulgent and young Hearst was unruly. He was expelled from Harvard but soon after, at the age of 24, he became editor and publisher of his father's San Francisco Examiner. He soon gained in power and wealth and the Hearst legend was born.

The young Hearst bought newspapers and established new ones and at one time he was master of the greatest chain of daily papers in the United States. Together with his large newspaper holdings, he had extensive interests in mining and in other fields of industry. His ambition grew apace with his publishing and industrial empire.

William Randolph Hearst, in a long and spectacular lifetime, had the capacity and ability to do great good for his fellow human. Instead, he chose to become the bedfellow of bigotry. His newspapers, in attacks on persons of Japanese ancestry from the time of World War I preached race hatred.

The power and influence of the man, who once lived in a castle high above the California coast at San Simeon and directed the daily policies of his newspapers from within that feudal barony, touched many nations and many peoples. On the Pacific coast of the United States he became the foremost journalistic advocate of a campaign of political demagoguery against persons of Japanese descent. He created and maintained a strong public opinion against the new Americans of Oriental ancestry.

William Randolph Hearst became the personal symbol of the perpetrator of the Yellow Peril campaign. He, perhaps more than any other individual was responsible for the antagonistic climate of public opinion which accepted the wholesale evacuation of Japanese Americans in 1942. He helped to sire that evacuation and was its willing mid-wife, for the wholesale banishment of the Nisei and Issei from the Pacific Coast was nothing more than an end result of a long history of race prejudice.

It would be a mistake of course, to assume that Hearst alone was responsible for the mass evacuation. But the evacuation was the creation of prejudice and that prejudice was, in turn, the creature of long years of hate-mongering, in which the Hearst press played a significant part.

The racism of William Randolph Hearst, extending to international affairs, was displayed nakedly in an editorial in the San Francisco Examiner on Jan. 25, 1943 when he called for a race war in Asia. "The war in the Orient," the Examiner said, "is of a totally different character than the war in Europe . . . Whatever side wins (in Europe) . . . Occidental civilization is going to be maintained and will still progress."

"Bad as the situation is in Europe," said Mr. Hearst's paper, "the war there is between European Occidental nations between white races. Antagonisms, hatreds and jealousies, no matter how violent, cannot obscure the fact that the warring nations of Europe stem from common racial, cultural, linguistic and social roots. It is a family fight, in which the possibility of ultimate agreement and constructive harmony has not been dismissed by the most determined opponents."

The great historian, Charles A. Beard, once predicted [illegible] farewell message to Hearst [illegible] lished some years ago that [illegible] judgment on the creator [illegible] aggregation of wealth, [illegible] ambition will be the verdict of the American nation [illegible] tormentor, or at least [illegible] part of the nation [illegible] the preservation of [illegible] decencies without which [illegible] ple can endure."

History will record [illegible] William Randolph Hearst [illegible] died at 88, a relic from [illegible] of the robber barons, w[illegible] remembered as the ruler of [illegible] pire of ink and lead and [illegible] as a man who misused a fa[illegible] legacy.

The Limit Is 200

Gum-chewing may aid digestion, sweeten breath, make teeth whiter and calm ruffled nerves but the action involved doesn't enhance anyone's features. This is a particularly obvious Nisei habit.

Apparently the same is true across the line for the girls practice an odori in Denver for their coming Bon ceremonies had to be reprimanded for their unladylike jawing and told to cut out the sugared sticks.

We've seen that here too. A young girl in a kimono was posing for a news photographer and you could see her molars working over a wad. It just killed the whole effect.

Maybe because it's more noticeable when they chew, but it seems to us, girls seem to be the worse offenders rather than the Nisei boys. Sometimes about half of the girls at a Nisei dance are rolling their jaws, some atrociously, others less so but still traceably.

Maybe this is one thing we can learn from Japan. They consider it off-beam in etiquette to eat or chew food while standing, and especially while walking. While here, biting into fruit or licking cones on the streets is more or less acceptable, it might be a good idea to show a little more discretion about when and where not to chew.

ホワイトロック ビーチの想出

ニトマバ州にて 杉本花子

ホワイトロックですこした愉しかつた夏の想出のかすかす。それはわずか一年あまりの短かい期間であつたけれど私には大事な時期だつた様に思われる。

日本からきて間もなかつた私は、白人との日常の交際の仕方や、西洋式の作法はもとより料理などを、どれだけ多く學んだことであろう。今から卅年も昔のことである。

ホワイトロックに轉任する様にと書面を米國大北鐵道會社から受けとつた夫は、當時バンクーバーでセクション・ギャングのフォーマンであつた。バンクーバーでもアパート住居でなすこともなく、私は英語の勉強を思い立って二ヵ月ほど學校へ通つたものです

交際する友人はみんな日本人で、私より年長で親切な人たちばかりでしたから氣樂ではあつたが、せつかく習いはじめた英語を話してみる機會もなく、熱心な努力にもかかわらず、直接に役立つ英語の成績はさつぱり上らずにしまいました。

さて地方へ轉任となつて、新婚早々の私たちは身輕なもの、大型スーツケースが四個これが全財產であつた。汽車のパスも會社から支給されてあつたし、新しい任地に向う車中も、若かつた二人は小旅行にでた様にのんきであつた

日本では東北地方でぼんやり育つたせいか、バンクーバーでの生活はどうしてもなじめなかつたが、ホワイトロックはとても素敵であつた。暇さえあれば毎日のように海邊に出て海風を楽しみました。

潮が遠く退いた日には、ずつと沖にまで歩いて赤貝など拾うのは本當に心愉しいものでした。もともと有名な避暑地でもありましたから、春から秋にかけてビーチは海水浴客で賑わい、週末にはバンクーバーから一日の清遊をたのしむ人々をのせた特別列車が發着しました。

「海外發展のため」

紅陵大學河相理事長の新教育抱負

元ヴァンクーヴァー駐在領事河相達夫氏はオーストラリヤ駐剳公使、情報局總裁、外務次官等を歴任後しばらく官界を退いて居られたが、最近紅陵大學理事長に就任、先日私は日濠貿易協會々長室に同氏を訪問、教育にたいする抱負を伺うと大要左の如く述べられた（六月三十日東京に於て鈴木重二）

紅陵大學は元の拓殖大學で故桂公の主唱で創立せられ、當時專門的なものとして、實際上の必要より開設せられたものであるが、次いで後藤新平男の時代になり、再轉して更に廣く海外發展を目的とするようになったがその後、過ぎる大戰時に至り、三轉して軍事的發展の為先棒をかつぎこれに同調するようになった。こうしたロマンチックな愛國主義に惇れた時代においては彼の有名な横川、沖というような志士を出し、今次の戰爭でも幾人かがパージにかかるという有様で、アジヤ防衛を理想としていたが敗戰後機構を變え、校名をも紅陵大學と改め、ここに四轉、根本的に方針を更改し、從來の眼界の狹い民族主義を棄て、正直にして勤勉なるものは世界到るところで幸福な生活を營み得るという信念のもとに、海外に平和的發展を目的とする發足をすることとなった。

アメリカ大統領トルーマン氏の未開發地開發政策が現實となって大規模に行われようとしている今日、開拓力となってこの潮に乘ることが大事である。トルーマン氏の開發運動はソ連をのぞく殆んど全熱帶圏のアフリカン、アフリカ奧地、南洋、ジャワ、スマトラその他廣汎に及ぶであろうがそれには何んとしても開拓思想の強烈なものでなくてはならない。白人は概して適性が少ないのであるから、日本民族の適性を發揮して進出すべきで、今から先きを見こして時機の來た時に備え、若いものを訓練しておく必要がある。それには先ず偏狹な精神をすて、世界的眼光をもつ青年を育成し、國家主義より國際主義に則り、國家と世界を調和し、農耕の技術を身につけねばならない。最後に日本人の最大缺陷たる非協同性を根本的にたたき直す、協同性のある青年、眞實の意味のデモクラシーを体得する、これらを目標に青年を教育することが肝要である。他方、すでに海外に出ている人達が、自らの過去半生を回顧するとき、志をいだき働いたが、その割合に成功し得なかった人々が少なくない。深き感なき能わざるであろうが、それは多く渡航前の準備訓練が不足であつたからである。これらの人達は後繼者を養成する意味で、渡航地の言葉、人情、風俗などをよく呑みこむことが必要であることを考えなければならない。

一方から見れば、今日二世はよき條件、よき環境のもとに安住しているが、他面から見ると一世のよき部分と、生れた國のよき部分とを、二つとも摑みかねているものもある。そこに二世の教育問題があり、一世はそこに悩まされるものがある。現實には子供をカナダにおいて教育するか、あるいは前半か後半かを日本で教育するか、今日では日本教育だけということはなかろうが、少なくとも前半か後半か、子供を日本へ送るものはカナダ協會などが仲介となつて連絡をとるようにしたいと望んでいる。然かし、かつての日の丸を押したてた海外發展ではないかというような疑惑は持ってもらいたくない。

今日凡ての國家は未だ民族エゴイズムから抜けきらないでいるが、今後は國際主義に則るか、民族主義に據るかといえば、時勢は次第に國際主義に移向しつつあるので、この大勢に落伍してはならない。敗戰日本は先ずエゴイズムから脱却しなくてはならない。時勢のこの要求に應ずるため、私共は海外から青年にたいする日本教育を喜んで引受ける。一世の後繼者として二世にカナダにおいて意義ある生涯をもたせるために、若干の手傳をしたい。そして知見の上に、交友の上に、二世がカナダと日本と双方にまたがり、事業を擴げて行くようにしたいと思っている。カナダばかりでなく、他の地域にたいしても同様であるが、海外からの學生と日本の學生とをミックスすることによつて、相互に持たざるものを補うことになる。日本における海外からの青年のために父兄に代わって面倒を見てやりたいと考えている。

【ビーシー州クレストン發】クレストン電氣器具店主豊田タック氏（三二）は國際的なビズネスメンの團体たるキワニスクラブのクレストン支部長に擧げられた。キワニス・クラブは社會奉仕の事業もやつているのであり豊田氏はそのメンバーとして特に青年團体の活動に助力しているのであるが、カナダに於ける日系二世としてキワニス・クラブの會長に擧げられたのは豊田氏が最初である。同氏一家は五年前にスローカンから當地に移つてきて最初は小さなラジオ修繕と電氣器具店を開き漸次擴張して今日では一年の賣上げ十二萬弗という商賣をしているが、人口六千のクレストン・ヴァレーに於る唯一の日系家庭である。父母の豊田大五郎氏夫妻はもと晩香坡島ダンカンに居住、現在はオンタリオ州セントカザリンスに居り、弟のフランク君もオンタリオ州のホッケー界で名を擧げている。

かつてヴァンクーヴァーに駐在していたことのある河相達夫領事といえば、あの頃同氏と親しくしていた人も反對側に立つてケンカしていた人も、忘れることの出來ない人であろう。

あれは、もう二十五年も前のことである。「自由主義的」だった五明領事の後に、河相達夫氏がヴァンクーヴァー駐在領事として來任したのは一九二五年の秋、翌二六年一月には、その當時、歸化せるカナダ市民もナショナルも會員にして、とにかく「在加日系人の總合團体」であった日本人會に對して、領事は全部的な監督權を所有するものであると主張した。在留民は領事という大きな傘の下に保護されるものだ、と、まるで野蠻國に居住している人々に對するような言葉をもって臨んだのであるからたまらない。南北生は彼に「大傘領事」という異名をたてまつり、勞働組合（日本人の）は、領事の主張に眞向から反對して「惡官僚の在留同胞社會攪亂の罪」を徹底的に糾彈した。

こうして領事—日會—勞働組合の抗爭が始まり、次に來た福岡豊吉領事の時代に及んで、勞働組合排斥の「シャツコ除文書」不正呼寄問題、徴兵猶豫のための「在留申告書問題」等にからんで、ケンカはいよいよ激化し、カナダの勞働會議や日本の外務省、陸軍省にまで問題を提起するという騒ぎが持ち上り、抗爭は前後數年間の長きに及んだのであつた。

在留民を「バカ」呼ばわりしたり、日本の國旗を掲揚せねば船に乘つてやらんなどと、スキーナ河あたりの視察に出かけてダダをこねたのは、たしか祖國領事であったであろう。

この河相氏が、こんど、海外移民の教育をする紅陵大學の理事長に就任して、今後の新教育について大いに抱負を語ったことを東京の鈴木重二氏が書き送ってきた。

この紅陵大學というのは元の拓殖大學で、日本の古領地に對する植民政策にもとづいて移植民の教育と指導をやつてきたものだそうだが、戰後日本には、もはや民族主義的な、植民地域に對する「植民」などということはなくなつて、移民としての平和的な海外發展を目ざし、そのために全く新らしい移民教育をする必要が起つて、ここ、大學と面目を一新して再發足することになつたのである。

それにしても、カナダにいる日系人も變ってきたし、「河相領事」も變ってきたものではある。どちらもよい方にだ。思えば、うたた感慨にたえないというところか。

Nitta Machinery Wins Will Represent Toronto

A record attendance for a Nisei sports event in Eastern Canada, That's being anticipated for the Labor Day week-end softball tourney to be held in Toronto.

The first tournament of its kind ever to be held in Canada, it's difficult to estimate about how many it will draw, however the finals to be played on Sunday, Sept. 2, is being looked upon to shatter all previous attendance in Nisei sportdom.

With the Canadian National Exhibition in progress a boost in attendance is expected from out-of-town points including visitors who will be following their teams into Toronto.

Four Nisei teams, representing four cities in the eastern sections of Canada and the United States, will participate in a two-day elimination series to determine the champions of the Toronto JCCA Invitational Softball Tournament and to take one-year possession of the Toronto JCCA Challenge Trophy.

Cleveland, Montreal, New York and Toronto will be the teams in the tourney. All four teams get into action on Saturday, Sept. 1, at Bellwoods Park, the scene of all games, as the Canadian squads will square off in the first game and the Americans playing in the nightcap. The twilight game will get under way at 6 o'clock and the later contest at eight.

This will assure a Canadian-American finals to declare the tourney champs, as one American and one Canadian team must survive the opening rounds. The championship game will be played at 3:15 p.m. on Sept. 2. Preceding it will be the consolation game at 1:30, between the losers of the first round. The championship game will go nine innings, but remaining contests, because of the time element will go seven innings.

Meanwhile, in a drawn-out see-saw game that saw both teams blunder through nine innings, Nitta Machinery nudged out Yamada Studios on Aug. 19 in a sudden-death to determine who's to represent the home-town. With neither teams showing anything except generosity, the score read 21-20 at the close.

It was a ragged debacle that had supporters of both teams wondering if either squad had the right to represent Toronto. Consensus among the fans was that an all-star team might be the best thing to give Toronto a stronger representation.

What was to have been the strong advantage for Yamada pitching, was its downfall as the two unrelated Tanaka, Mits and Jackie, couldn't find the plate. Kenny Fukusaka, a surprise starter for the Nittas, in his first pitching effort of the season, gave a far better hurling job, despite the score.

Vancouver Ball Club Played in Seattle

The Vancouver Nisei Baseball team is reported by the North-west Times of Seattle as having visited the Puget Sound city to engage in a double-header on Aug. 19.

Opposition was supplied by the Nisei Vets.

Nisei Girl Tosses Softball 250 Feet

DENVER, Colo. — Nancy Ito, shortstop for the Denver Industrial Banksettes, was acclaimed as the best distance thrower in her league last week.

In the distance throwing contest, the Nisei player in three attempts hit the scoreboard 250 feet away three times. Other players' throws landed on the ground in front of the scoreboard.

In the game itself, Nancy came through with a home-run that plated three runs for her team.

Best Cleaners in Playoff Wins Three Games in Row

Best Cleaners ended the regular season in Intermediate A competition by completely outclassing the field with a record of 12 wins, one loss and one tie.

The teams are now playing a round robin series to decide the two finalists who will then play for the Toronto Intermediate League championship. This next game for Best Cleaners will be a playoff fixture which pits them against Toppers on Friday, Aug. 24 at Greenwood Park. Game time is 6:30 p.m.

So far Bests have won three games in the playoffs without a loss. On Aug. 11 they started out by downing defending champions Defoe Motors in a thriller 9-8. In the final inning, Ken Nakamachi came in to relieve Basil Cormier with the tieing run on third and only one out, and managed to put out the fire with two pitches. Bob Ohashi shone at bat with two hits.

They gained their second victory when they pounded out a 9-3 win over the Tigers. Ken Nakamachi went all the way allowing but three hits while Art Watanabe sparked the attack with a lusty triple.

On Aug. 18 at McCormick Stadium, Best Cleaners made it three in a row as they blasted their way to a 11-5 win over Toppers. Although Nakamachi started this tilt, Tucker Uchikawa who relieved received credit for the win. The pair of flingers held Toppers to three hits. Toki Kamino's double was the most damaging effort as the teams divided the hits evenly.

Five Bests Bat Better than .300

During the regular season play, five players hit over .300 for Best Cleaners.

Tad Miura led the team with a .375 mark. Others in the charmed circle are Art Watanabe .312, Bob Ohashi .333, Toki Kamino .308, and Elmer Harafuji .303.

CARDS IN HAMILTON PLAYOFF LEAD, UCHIDA IS BATTING CHAMP

HAMILTON — Pounding out ace Cub hurler Wes Hyodo for 16 hits, the rejuvenated Cards went one up in the semi-final best of three playoffs. The score was 12-8.

When Fukumoto, the Card hurler was forced to retire because of a sore arm, George Uchida went in to give a creditable exhibition of relief hurling, allowing no hits and striking out seven in four innings. He had a touch of wildness in walking three but bore down when [illegible] pitches counted.

Cubs jumped to a 5-run lead off Fukumoto in the first but the Cards bounced back with six on six consecutive hits in the second and rallied again for another five runs.

The tail end of the batting order was the big gun for the winners as Horibe and Suzuki had three apiece, Nishimura, S. Uchida, Fukumoto and Shintani each had a pair of bingoes.

In regular season play, George Uchida of the Cards took the batting honors with a .541 mark, while Harold Shimoda who picked up points in the final game, ended with an even .500 to finish second while Ken Hashimoto slipped to third spot by dropping to .466.

PASSING THRU

of the emotions heightened to a maximum. The hero passes through these phases as he grows from adolescence to manhood.

The novel is regarded as an autobiography of Lawrence's own stormy life in the coal mine district of bleak England. And of course, as with most of Lawrence's novels, a lot of gut bucket s-e-x is involved. But the sex is a vital problem in the young hero's growing up stage and the treatment of it in great fiction is quite unlike the trashy and cheap novels which merely wallow neck-deep in the stuff.

I thought the first part of the book—the father and son conflict—an outstanding piece of writing. One, however, that needs a little familiarity before it can be really understood.

Dostoyevsky's Crime and Punishment, of course, is a famous book, having been written many times in different languages and it is one of the outstanding classics of literature. It is also the grandpappy of all detective stories.

The story is quite familiar. Raskolnikov, the hero—if I may call him that—commits a murder(s). But it is not an ordinary murder—it is a murder born out of an obsession, an intellectual struggle. But what really counts is the internal conflict which he feels after the murder.

The entire book is based on his egoistical agonies and although it becomes slightly tiresome in spots, today's novels of psychological twistings are quite flat and meagre beside the Russian's monumental masterpiece.

I don't think Crime Really Pays, after all.

Joyce's The Portrait of The Artist as a Young Man is another well known trademark of high literature. It's sort of a prologue before his novel, Ulysses, which is considered as a landmark in modern fiction. Ulysses, I haven't touched yet but the Portrait was engrossing enough to make me want to read the former.

The Portrait which is actually a short novel despite the long-winded title, is quite hard to wade through, mostly because of Joyce's difficult style of writing. It concerns itself with the painful struggles of an Irish boy as he grows out of adolescence, his Jesuit school training, and his great struggle between religion and sex. His final evolution into manhood is seen when he vows to "forge in the smithy of my soul the uncreated conscience of my race".

ENGAGEMENTS

TORONTO — The engagement is announced of Shizue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Masanori Hayakawa, to Yasushi Saito, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mataji Saito.

Baishakunins are Mr. and Mrs. Sosaku Iwasaki.

TORONTO — The engagement of Ayako, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miyuki Takasaki of Toronto, and Mr. Yoshio Tonogai, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Riemon Tonogai of Toronto, was announced on Aug. 5 at the home of the Takasaki's.

book is James Mitchener's Return to Paradise and necessary stuff to read in between such novels as I mentioned above.

Mitchener of Tales of The South Pacific fame and anyone who has heard the songs, Some Enchanted Evening and Bali Hai, should have heard of it, brings us back to that never-never land of nut-brown hula girls and waving palm trees in his Return to Paradise. But he also does not minimize the squalor and the abject misery that go hand in hand in these islands.

In this, his latest book, Mitchener writes essays about fascinating sounding places—Fiji, Tahiti, Polynesia, New Guinea, New Zealand—and follows up the essays with short stories. This is easy to read, unpretentious sort of reading which is ideal for relaxation and just like seeing a technicolour movie. This is the type of book to read if you want to curl up by the fireside and dream of cool blue water, sandy shores, love-making, coca-nuts and of such stuff that make up one man's paradise.

I've already put in my bid for a birthday present: an air-conditioned, sound-proof den with a built-in LP record-player and shelves full of books. Heck, I'm not proud; I'll beg.

Western Jrs. Reach Playoff Finals

After losing the first game, Western Juniors came back to win the next two and thereby reached the finals of the West Toronto Junior League finals.

On Aug. 20, they were decisive winners by downing West Yorks 5-0. Ken Ikeda, one of the brightest hopes in Nisei ball circles limited the opposition to three hits. He was aided by Major Fukumoto's shortstopping, another comer. At bat Herby Miyasaki had a pair of hits.

Juniors now await the outcome of the other semi-finals.
